

- Full Time coverage for Maternity Leave February – May
- Continue Full Time with a Caseload Built to Interests

Living Spirit Therapy Services, LLC is looking for a Neurologic Music Therapist to join our team. The position will begin with coverage of a 4-month maternity leave with a continued full time position after leave coverage with a caseload built to interests. There is an option to begin sooner with part time hours. Must have experience working in a school system and/or with groups and individuals with complex needs. The current caseload is for work in multiple schools, with children and young adults with developmental disabilities or mental health needs, and in long term care. Must be willing to serve clients both in person and through telehealth. This is an hourly, full-time, benefited, employee position.

Living Spirit Therapy Services, LLC is a music therapy private practice in the Twin Cities Metro area of Minnesota serving individuals and groups throughout the community as well as through telehealth. Our practice specializes in music therapy services for seniors; those with neurologic issues such as stroke, Parkinson's disease, and autism; individuals with developmental disabilities; early childhood music; and wellness. Individuals with mental health issues, and children and young adults with other needs are also served.

What makes us unique?

Our culture has been described by teammates as one of clear and open communication, collaboration, and wellness; and is driven by core values of dignity, respect, compassion, empowerment, integrity, trust, and personal and professional growth. One team member recently said she felt her "potential for growth at Living Spirit Therapy Services was endless".

Two programs developed by Living Spirit Therapy Services include the:

Our Empowering Wellness Initiative is a web-based tool to support community mental and physical health; and to provide enrichment for children and individuals with disabilities. Our Gather and Grow series provides monthly opportunities for continuing education, networking, resource sharing, and community building.

Living Spirit Therapy Services is committed to increasing equity in access to services to support overall quality of life and well-being. Visit the home page of our website to learn more about the actions we are taking towards this.

All team members must be Neurologic Music Therapists and maintain this standing. If you haven't done this training yet you can do so within the first 6 months of hire.

Due to the unpredictability of COVID candidates must be flexible, able to adapt to changing situations, willing and able to see clients both via telehealth and in person and have good self-care strategies. Candidates must be vaccinated for COVID.

THIS WOULD BE A GOOD FIT IF:

- You would like a music therapy career with a dedicated team that emphasizes collaboration, strong communication, authenticity, respect, dignity, integrity, individual strengths, and compassion
- You would like a position with built in opportunities for continued growth and professional development, resources, supports, and strong community
- You are passionate about how Neurologic Music Therapy can improve quality of life
- It would be refreshing to work with clients in a variety of settings and formats
- You would like the opportunity for flexibility in scheduling to meet your evolving needs
- You love to be innovative in your work
- You appreciate an environment that celebrates accomplishments
- You thrive in an environment in which you can openly share ideas, concerns, and perspective

THIS WOULD NOT BE A GOOD FIT IF:

- You are not willing to take and maintain NMT training
- You do not feel comfortable sharing concerns, ideas, and issues with your supervisor; and/or do not like giving and receiving feedback with a team
- You are not vaccinated for COVID-19
- You do not like continuing education
- You do not like driving throughout the community
- You need a consistent schedule day to day
